The disciples were filled with great awe and said to one another, “Who then is this whom even wind and sea obey?”

Centennial Plans Underway

As explained at the parish wide meeting on Sunday May 16th, the Church building will be 100 years old in April 2022. A steering committee has been established and several possible activities have been proposed if there are parishioners to organize and run the events.

Interested parishioners met on Wednesday, June 2 and developed an outline of celebratory events. Ideas included a special weekend Mass with the Archbishop followed with an enhanced coffee and in McGivney Hall. A formal sit down dinner or brunch would be held on the same weekend or a following weekend. A parishioner photo directory is planned to be published as well other ways to mark the occasion.

If you are interested in helping, you are invited! In addition to planning actual events there is need for assistance on outreach that will announce the planned activities and market the events to be held.

The committee is also asking for assistance in getting information and or photographs of the Church during the early years.

If you have information or photos to share please contact Ken Maltese at kenmaltese@gmail.com or other committee members: Lucille Alouah at hatpins5@hotmail.com, Cindy DeCarlo at cindydecarlo@sbcglobal.net or Mary Ellen Kowalski at mekowalski@sbcglobal.net.

If you would like to volunteer for a sub-committee, and have not already signed up, please complete the information below and give it to a steering committee member, Fr. Morgewicz or send it through the collection basket.

Synod 2020 Scheduled to Close With Mass this August

January 10, 2020, was the last meeting of the delegates of Synod 2020. Then, as we were in the throes of the pandemic, all plans concerning the closing of the Synod were suspended. As the effects of the pandemic are more under control, the Archbishop has decided that it is the appropriate time to conclude Synod 2020.

The Closing Mass of the Archdiocesan Synod 2020 has been scheduled for Friday, August 13, 2021, at 6:30 p.m., in the Oakdale Theatre, Wallingford. Our parish has 30 tickets for parishioners to attend this historic event.

This Mass, in addition to celebrating the closing of the Synod, will also be the first memorial of Blessed Michael J. McGivney, founder of the Knights of Columbus. Blessed Michael McGivney’s brother John was responsible for constructing our church that will be 100 years old in April.

Each Parish in the Archdiocese has been asked to participate by including thirty parishioners at this very special Mass. Please contact the rectory office or complete the coupon below and return it in the collection basket to reserve a ticket. Participants are asked to be in their seat by 6:00 p.m. on August 13. We are lucky that the venue is so close to New Haven!

We look forward to a good turnout at this historic event.

Please ask Mary to pray for us:

Mary our Mother, ...
Watch over us all – clergy, religious and laity – with maternal care, so that as members of one family of faith our bonds of communion may grow stronger, our love for one another deeper, the practice of our faith more devout, our witness to Christ more heroic, for the sake of our mission to be salt and light for the world.

(From Prayer Card: Act of Entrustment)

Sign Me Up! I will be able to attend the historic closing Mass of the Synod on Friday, August 13, at the Oakdale Theatre.
