Join in Prayer to Remember

Join the faithful throughout the Archdiocese for the annual Archdiocesan Mass of Remembrance to be held on Wednesday, June 22, 2022 at 5:30 p.m. at Our Lady of the Assumption in Woodbridge.

Celebrant, the Reverend Glen Dmytryszyn, Director of the Respect Life Ministry Office.

The Mass of Remembrance is a time for reflection on the lives of our children who have died from any cause. The causes are numerous but the resulting emotions of pain, longing, and sorrow are the same. Perhaps one of the overlooked losses is miscarriage. It can be seen as less than other deaths of children, but for those who have experienced miscarriage, it is no less painful.

The Mass of Remembrance provides parents with the opportunity to remember these children. Please join us in praying for children who have died by miscarriage, abortion, illness, or any cause, and for their families on June 22.

Today the Church Celebrates The Most Holy Trinity

There is a logical flow to the celebrations throughout the year in the Church. After experiencing the power of Jesus over sin and death in Easter and waiting for the coming of the Holy Spirit at Pentecost last week, it is most appropriate to consider and celebrate the unity of God, The Trinity this Sunday.

The Trinity is one of those doctrines that is classified as a strict mystery; that is, it cannot be learned nor understood completely from reason. The mystery is so great that often words can be difficult to adequately explain and understand this reality of God. It has often been said that whenever anyone begins to explain the Trinity, one falls either into error or heresy. Working hard to avoid both, today’s feast day of The Most Holy Trinity celebrates the three divine persons, separate and distinct, in the one and same God.

The first person of the Trinity is God the Father; the second, God the Son; the third, God the Holy Spirit. The three persons are perfectly equal to one another and each is God. There is however only one God and we use the word “person” to explain who someone is, this is why we say that there are three persons in one God; Father, the creator; the Son, the redeemer and the Holy Spirit, the sanctifier.

The Incarnation of God’s Son (Jesus, while fully divine taking on human nature) reveals that God is the eternal Father and that the Son is consubstantial with the Father, which means that, in the Father and with the Father, the Son is one and the same God.

The mission of the Holy Spirit, sent by the Father in the name of the Son and by the Son, reveals that, with them, the Spirit is one and the same God. This is seen when we state in the Creed, “With the Father and Son he is adored and glorified.”

Inseparable in what they are, the divine persons are also inseparable in what they do. But within the single divine operation each shows forth what is proper to him in the Trinity, especially in the divine missions of the Son’s incarnation and the gift of the Holy Spirit.

The majesty of God is awesome and gives us much to ponder and pray over but we must realize that it is only in the glories of heaven that the fullness of God will be made known to us and with that, hopefully a fuller understanding of the Almighty. Happy Trinity Sunday!

In 1892 writer-poet Francis Bellamy composed The Pledge of Allegiance to The United States of America, which was formally accepted by Congress in 1942. In 1954 the powerful words “under God” were added.

I pledge allegiance to the flag of the United States of America. And To the Republic, for which it stands, One Nation, Under God, Indivisible, With Liberty and Justice, For All.
