November Food Drive in the Parish
The Social Action Committee is asking your help to bring in non-perishable foods that will then be donated to the hungry in New Haven through FISH of Greater New Haven. Committee members will be handing out shopping bags during the Sunday Mass and on the bag is a list of suggested items.

Donations may be left inside the doors of the Church during the weekends of October 30 and November 14. Please do not leave food at the rectory or outside the Church and, in your charity, please check expiration dates because expired food cannot be given out by the food bank.

For questions please call Diane Dow at 203-387-4417. God bless you for your kindness!

VESPER TIME
Deacon Ernie Scrivani will be offering a series of sessions on Frank Cunningham’s recent book, Vesper Time: The Spiritual Practice of Growing Older. Deacon Ernie notes that while the book was written with senior citizens in mind, anyone working through a life transition will benefit from the book. The plan is to meet for 10 sessions on Wednesdays from 3:30 to 4:45 starting November 30th. The sessions will be held in the Saint Joseph Church Hall. If you are interested, please contact Deacon Ernie at ernestscrivani@gmail.com.

ADULT CONFIRMATION
It sometimes happens for a variety of reasons that many Catholics do not complete the sacraments of initiation, i.e., they have not received Confirmation. As a result, these individuals are ineligible to serve as sponsors for Baptisms. The Archdiocese offers adult confirmation classes for individuals who are in this position. If you would like to talk about this, please contact Deacon Marty at moconnor@newhaven.edu.

Dear Parishioners:

During the few weeks that I have been with you, many of you have approached me with questions about my role here at Saints Aedan and Brendan and the future status of the parish. First, let me say that I welcome your questions, understand your deep concern, and will do my best to provide you with timely responses for those matters for which I have an answer. However, there are many questions for which I do not have an answer. The coming weeks will be critically important in the life of the parish. During this time, it is very important to make your voices heard on the questions at hand. Because some of the same questions come up in virtually every conversation, I will use the parish bulletin to offer written responses as best I can.

What is an Administrator?
In many ways the word speaks for itself, but, as you might expect, it does have a very specific connotation in church law. When a parish is without a pastor for some reason, the archbishop appoints an individual to provide for both the temporal and spiritual needs of the parish. Normally, this individual would be a priest. When there is a shortage of priests, such as we have in our archdiocese, the archbishop can appoint a non-priest to discharge some of the responsibilities of a pastor, but the supervision of the spiritual needs is always delegated to a priest. In the case of my appointment to Saints Aedan and Brendan, my responsibilities include many of the administrative functions and some pastoral responsibilities. All of this is done under the direction of Father Ryan Lerner, pastor of St. Mary and Catholic Chaplain at Yale University.
